Medina Senior High School

Medina, Ohio

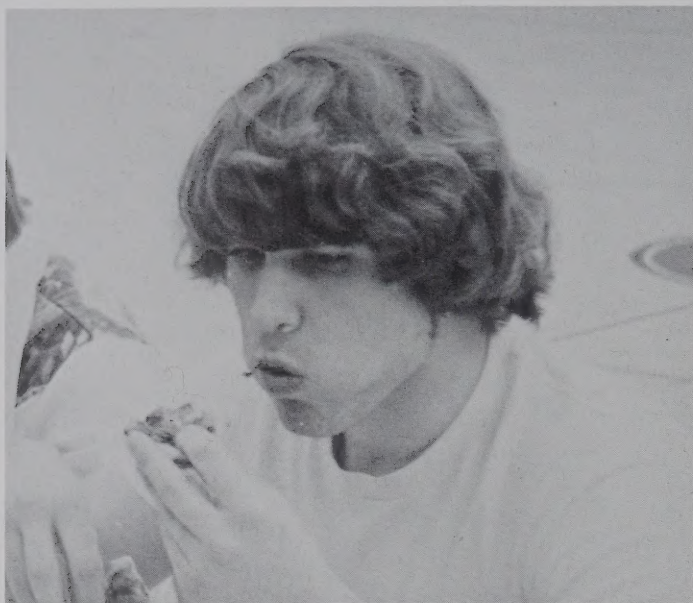

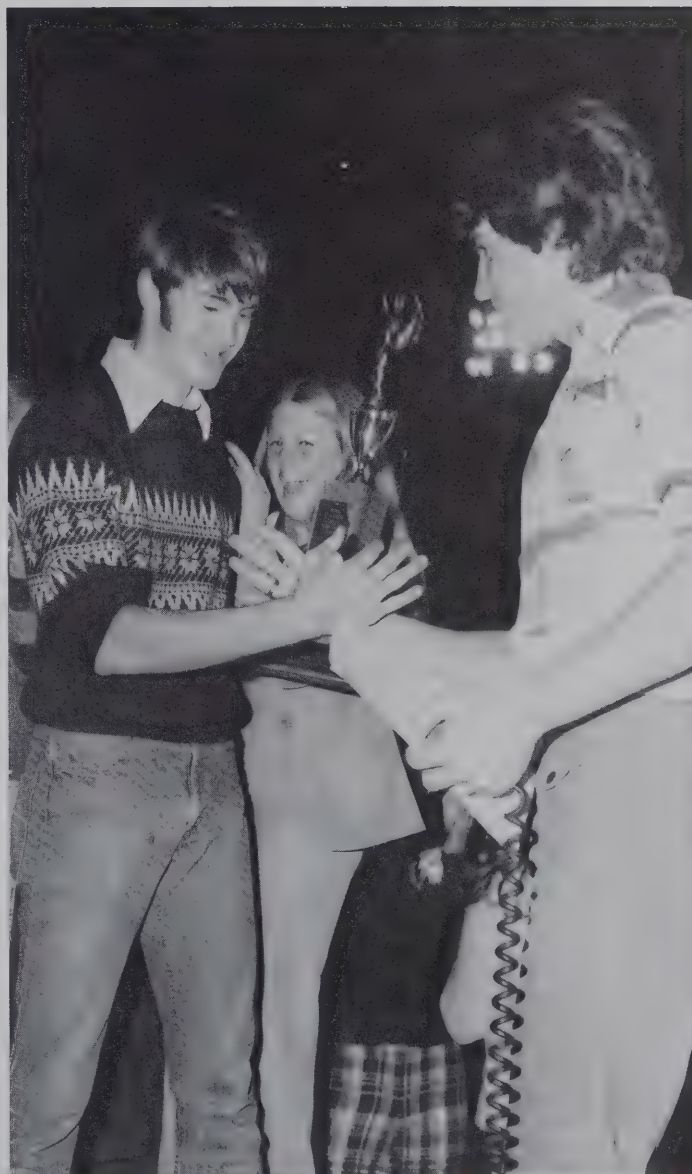

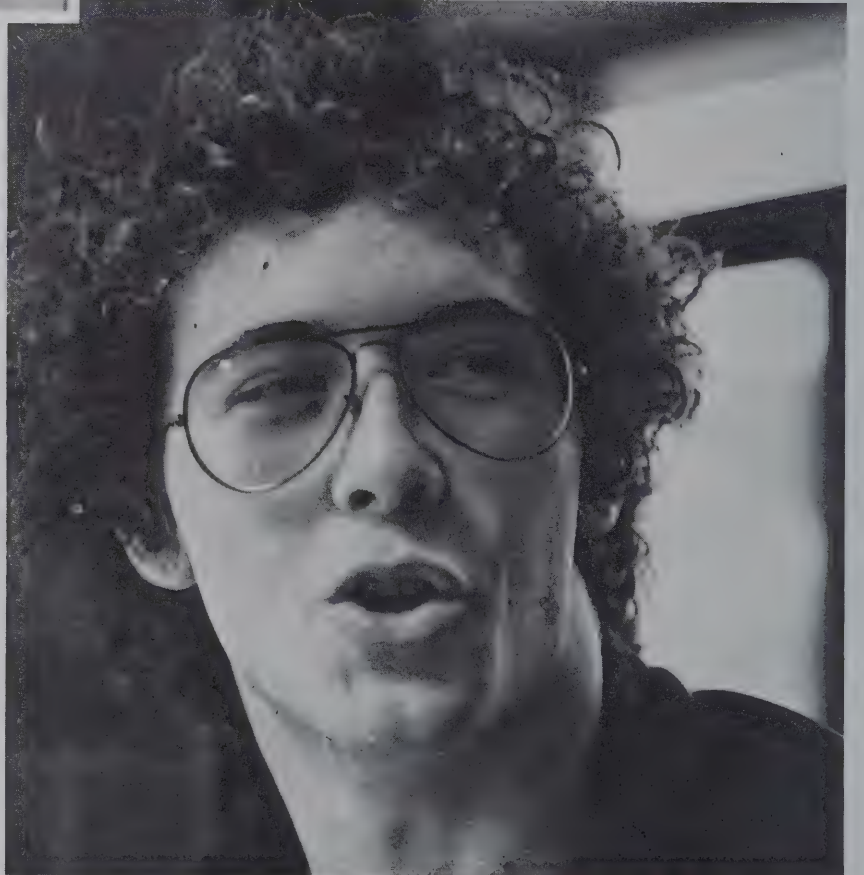

Oh, Those Crazy Kids

Seniors

Those Sweet Super Seniors

Seniors — that mystical word. It makes us leaders of the school, that privileged group whose position we've awaited for three years. We have gone from giggling freshmen to confident, mature, Seniors with pride.

The word Senior also brings emotions of the glorious times of the past to the frightful new future ahead of us. There will always be the memories to look back on. The first day of high school ... championships and defeats ... spectacular Homecomings and winning floats ... snow fights in the commons.

With these memories and many more in mind, we will go out the doors of MHS, as Seniors, for the last time.

Pomp and Circumstance

The 101st graduation exercises caught the seniors in a flurry of preparation on Sunday, June 6. Their Valedictorians, Ellen and Jan Silva, were ready to present their addition to the ceremonies, "Expostulation and Reply." Mr. Rios, Mr. Dague, and the members of the board of education were calmly awaiting the final appearance of the class. In another two hours, Mr. Jaeger, President of the board, will have handed out 327 diplomas. "Sing the praise of our Medina" class of '76, for she will always sing yours!

Each year, the Junior Women's Auxiliary sponsors a Charity Ball to raise money for the hospital. The 1976 Cotillion was held at the Community Center at the Medina County Fairgrounds. Over 400 people attended this benefit dance, presided over by Dr. Welty as Master of Ceremony. Medina was one of the several county schools that entered its prettiest misses for this gala event.

Juniors

The '75-'76 school year was a great one for the MHS Juniors. They started off with a beautifully designed float but lost competition to a slightly superior Senior float. They then proceeded to raise over two thousand dollars in one week by selling candles. The Juniors also made money by running the concession stand at football, basketball games and wrestling matches. The money went towards the Junior-Senior banquet and Prom. Officers this year are, from left to right: Vice President – Peggy Polomsky, Treasurer – Linda Hoffman, Secretary – Lynn Bryenton, and President – Mary Jaeger.

Freshmen

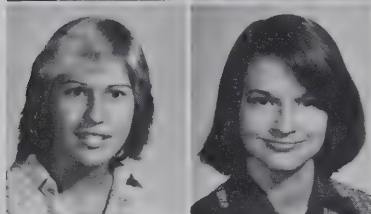

The Freshman class proved they were the class with the most spirit at all the pep assemblies. They also added a lot of spirit to our Homecoming activities by building a fantastic bonfire ... the best we've had in a long time. This year's officers are, left to right, President — Scott Nos, Vice President — Diane Talbert, Treasurer — Anita Sloan, and (missing) Secretary — Debbie Smith.

Varsity Basketball

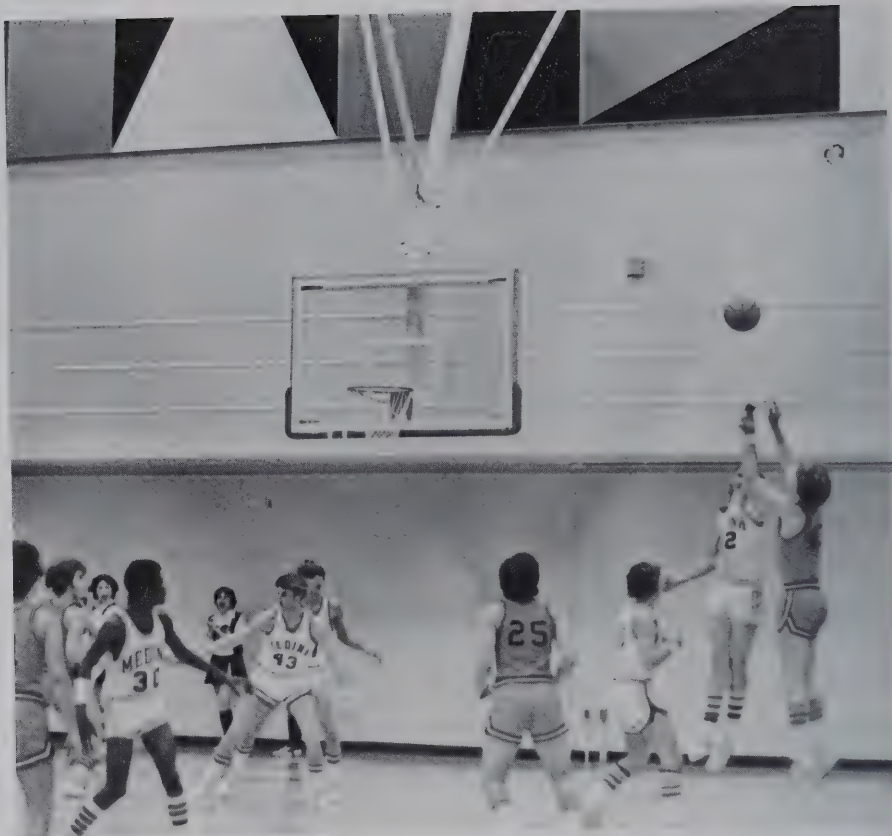

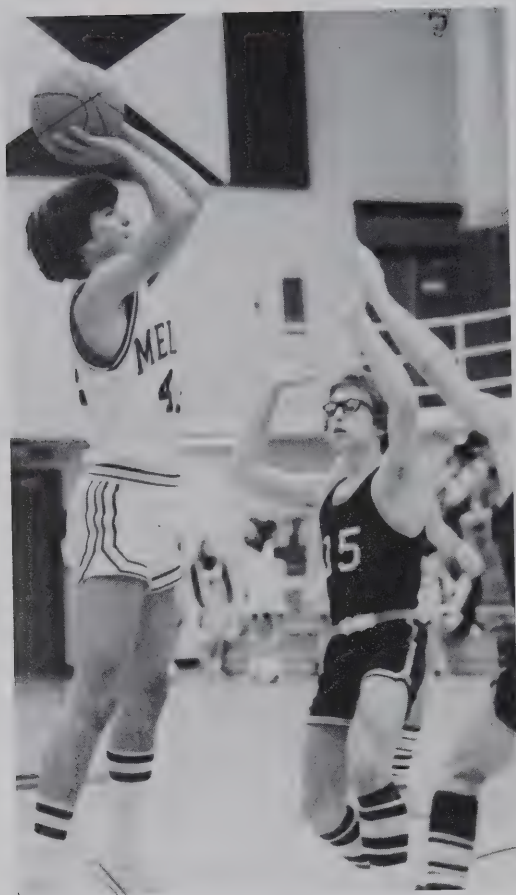

The Varsity Basketball team had a complete turn around from last year's 4 wins and 14 losses record. This year we had 13 wins and 7 losses for a record year for our new Coach Alan Darner, who also won the title of "Basketball Coach of the Year" for Medina County. The team started practicing in November and worked long, hard hours to stay at the top. This year's co-captains were Don Mellert and Mike Hawkins; Assistant Coach was Jim Wells.

Row 1: K. Pecararo, Coach Wells, M. Hawkins, R. Mellert, Coach Darner, S. Moucha. Row 2: B. Toporowsky, C. McLaughlin, B. Brenner, R. Kulp, J. Laliberte, M. Schafer, K. Green, J. Cox, B. Eaken, M. Hampton, S. Cole, L. Brown, S. Robson.

One word to describe the 1975-76 Girls Basketball team is "Champion". The Junior Varsity put together an undefeated season and dethroned two-time champ Bay Village to win the JV SWC title. The Varsity finished as SWC co-champs with Bay and went on to become sectional and district champs. They finished as one of the eight teams left in state, losing in the regional finals to eventual state champions Toledo Woodward.

Hello, Dolly!

What happens when three days before opening night the lead in this year's musical developed laryngitis and there was no understudy? The answer was simple. Last minutes changes were made on Tuesday night and when the show opened on Thursday, April 1, senior Becky Thomas appeared on stage, fresh and lively, the perfect picture of Dolly Levi, but she never uttered a sound — both singing and dialogue were dubbed in. By Friday, Becky was able to do her own lines, but Junior Dot Klopp continued to handle the singing throughout all four shows. Becky's exaggerated actions and pantomiming on stage, plus Dottie's fine soprano voice, proved to be the perfect combination for Medina's special, emergency dual characterization for the lead in "Hello, Dolly!"

Despite the unusual problems, a highly talented cast and fast-paced action and choreography kept this year's musical running smoothly.

1. Steve Cotter and Keith Mains pause momentarily as waiters in the Harmonia Gardens Restaurant before continuing in the dancer's rendition of the "Waiters' Gallop."
2. Cornelius and Barnaby (Bill McDade and Vince Masi) display the large sum of money they have just found in the restaurant. The roll of bills makes it easier for them to impress their dates Mrs. Molloy (Holly Yehnert) and Minnie (Cindy Prochaska) on their big night out in New York City.
3. The shock of Horace Vandergelder (John Wilson) excellently shows his feelings as Dolly Levi (Becky Thoman) teasingly says good-bye in "So long, Dearie."
4. Dolly is the center of attention, as well as the singing and dancing, as she joins the men's chorus of the Concert Choir and they delight the audience with the show's hit, title song, "Hello, Dolly!"
5. Dolly's master-minded maneuvering of Horace pays off in the end as they sing together the opening section of the "Finale."
6. Mrs. Molloy and Cornelius stop on the streets of New York to give their interpretation of the elite society in "Elegance."
7. Dolly's multi-talents help her win the heart of the judge in the emotional scene in the courtroom. Ermengarde (Valerie Brockway) wails her familiar cry of despair, as Ambrose Kemper (Todd Bixler) tries to comfort her. Rudolph (Jeff Jessie) and Ernestina (Judy Burridge) look on sympathetically.
8. Barnaby and Minnie overcome their shyness and take a firm stand together against Horace in the last scene.
9. Concert Choir members Kim Imig, Donna Boyer, and Cindy Watkins, join in the singing of "Before the Parade Passes By."
10. The stage is full of people and the auditorium resounds with music as the full cast sings a medley of "Hello, Dolly!" tunes to take their final bows.

Duh-h-h-h-h . . . where's the yearbook room?

The Medinian yearbook staff starts in August by selling advertising to local merchants — over $3,000 was raised this year. They had two sales and sold over 800 books. Theme for '76 was "Bicentennial Bees."

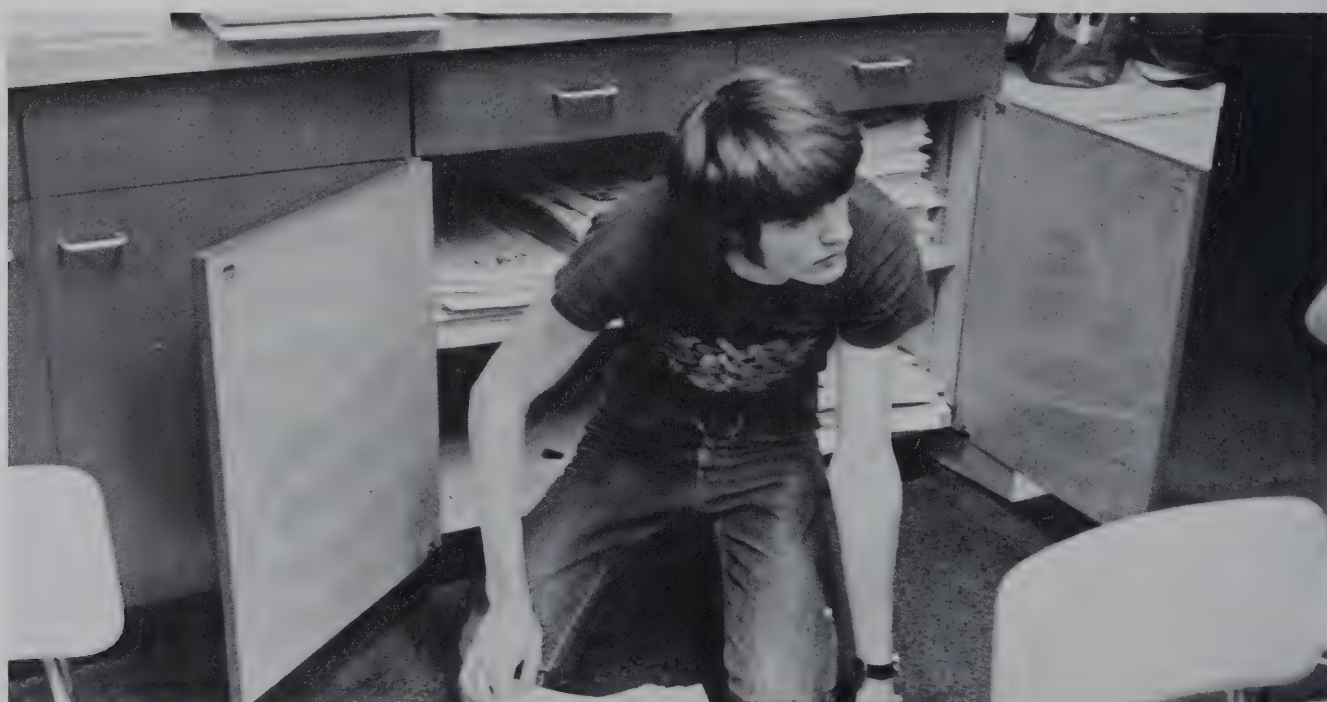

Is Karen selling ads or her phone number?

Freshmen Initiation started the year off to a good beginning. Senior GAA members dressed their little sis's up and the school was swarmed with freshmen members clowning around in their costumes. The club went on a trip to Wooster for some roller skating and managed to create a skit for SPICE. GAA ended its year with a picnic at the pavillion and new officers for 1976-77 were elected.

Service was the important word for the Key Club in '75-'76. The sixty-member organization strove to provide aid to its school and community through manpower and financial assistance. In its sixth year, the Medina High School Key Club was recognized as the number one Key Club for achievement in the state of Ohio. Key Club — it's only the beginning of people working for others in an effort to show that we care!

Student Council consists of twenty-six students representing each class. It provides school activities and programs that involve the total school and develops attitudes of good citizenship and leadership. The officers for the 1975-76 school year were Marc Williams (President), Darlene Case (Vice-President), Carolyn Jones (Interior Chairman), Jenni Roth, (Exterior Chairman), and Karen Amico (treasurer). Under their valuable leadership, Council organized Homecoming, sponsored school dances, and attended state conferences and workshops.

In the beginning a lad of tender year purchased a frame of ancient age for only a nickle And unto this frame he attached a tree and his friends saw that it was good and they saideth, "Double-Timeth" . . . From thence on the Roddeth Gangee formed a fellowship of enduring friendship and this ship hath not sunketh . . . The land on which they dwelteth and the air that they breathed containeth a certain misty and magical quality that madeth them drunke . . . The Gangroddeth thought that it was good and those whose hearts were kindled by the spirit uttereth in voices humble, "En Jerrydum" . . . And Lo! The good hearted laddies liveth and haddeth a merry time explodingeth fireworks, pokingeth funn at Ronn, printingeth newsletters, climbingeth chateaus, buildingeth houses in the Woods, playingeth pinball, searchingeth for tuna, drinkingeth juices du boogie, makingeth up wordseth (!), screamingeth like monkeys, and beingeth the better than average Whitte . . . But then the neighbors began to complaineth . . . Though in the endeth twas just a laugh . . . You see, chaps, they were only enjoying . . .

Stretch & Sew

The one. The only.
The original Stretch & Sew.

These busy days, everyone is sewing with knits. That's because knits are quick, easy and fun to sew. They're comfortable and carefree. And the knit fashions you sew today look every bit as nice as ready-to-wear — for a fraction of the cost. So why not join a Stretch & Sew class and see how Stretch & Sew techniques can save you hours of effort. After all, there's only one Stretch & Sew. We helped start the knit sewing revolution.

SIGN UP FOR CLASSES NOW!

We are available to your club or group for demonstrations and fashion shows at no charge. Call now for details.

How soothing!

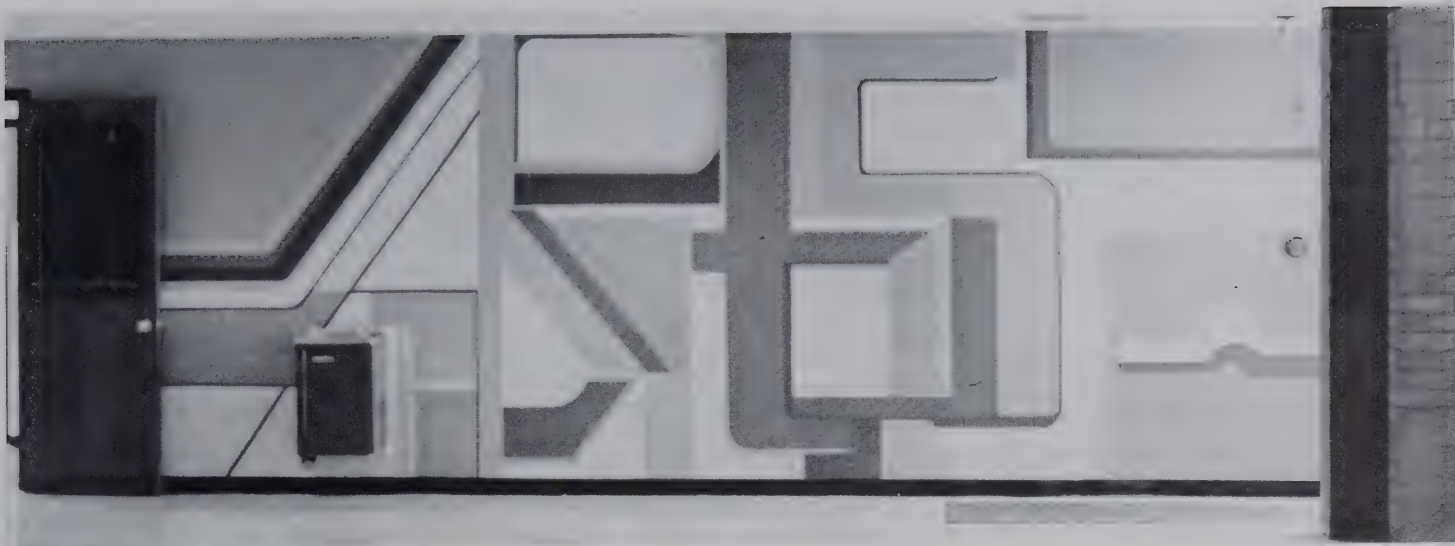

Bottoms up!

Spring Fever

Beach closed; Jaws!

Does it really say "Arts Hall?"

Tee Hee!

Did you really find this on your plate?

Is basketball a privilege, Mr. Darner?

Now can I graduate?

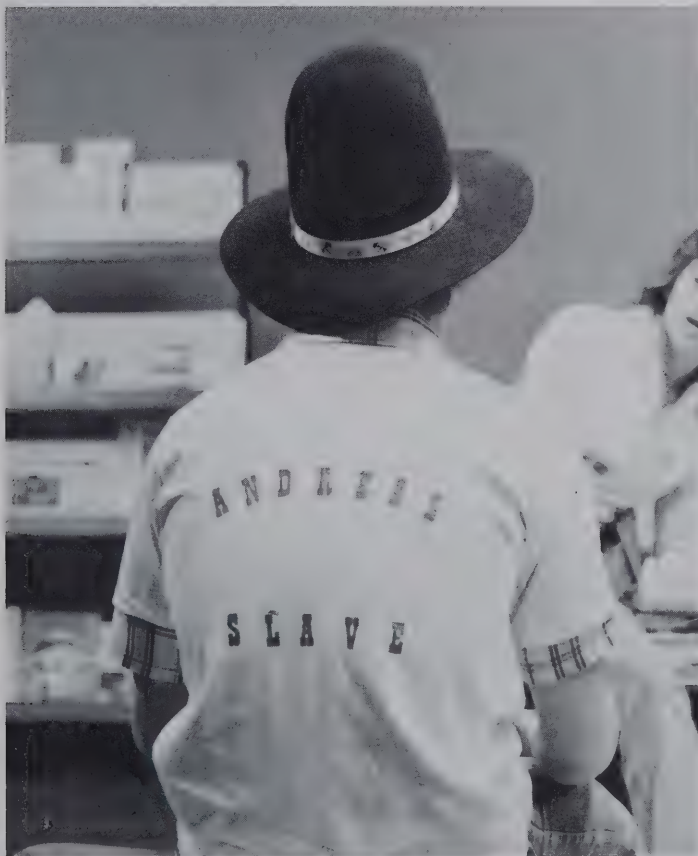

Together at last!

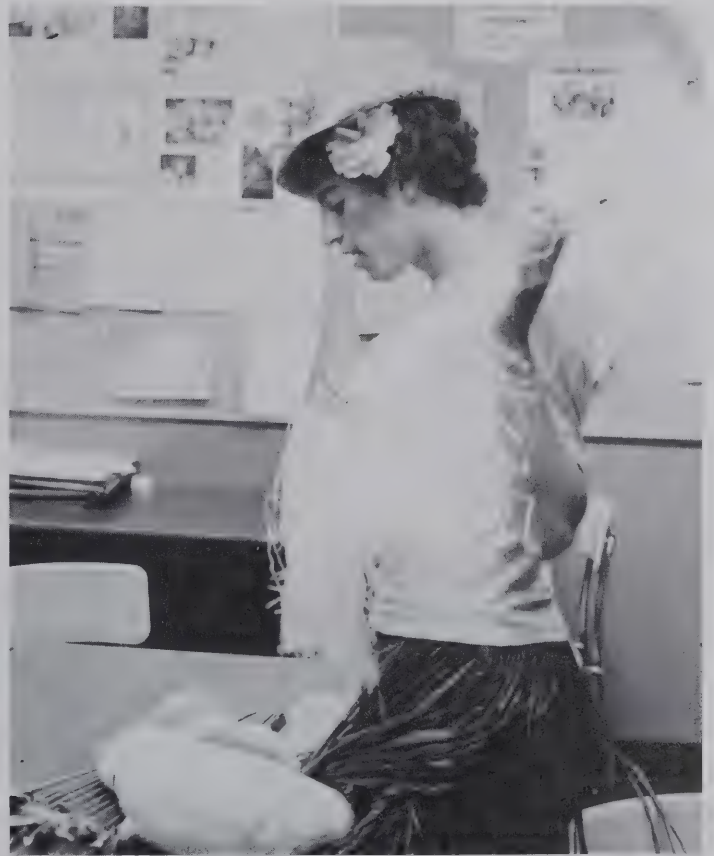

SLAVE DAY

I'm a little teapot . . .

I Wonder Who Bought Paul?

My purse is so messy — now where did I put my lipstick?

What a Mess!!!

Haven't we seen that eagle before?

Let's keep America beautiful

Mike, that's not a good gorilla imitation.

Now, that's a good imitation!

	Mr. James Cheuvront
	Mr. Dave Mihalko,

The school year is over and this Bicentennial yearbook will finally be published. (Oh, there's nothing wrong with something else being Bicentennial). It could never have been possible if it weren't for a lot of people, all working together. A special thanks to Mr. James Cheuvront for helping me in the past to achieve my best this year, and to Miss Taylor who took the job of yearbook advisor and the headaches accompanying it. She survived – and I hope she'll continue with the MEDINIAN next year. A very big THANK YOU to my assistant pal, Karen Rariden, and the rest of my staff. We had a lot of crazy and fun times. Last, and most gratefully of all, thanks, Mom and Dad, for everything!
